Welcome to Rocklin Unified School District

RUSD has earned a distinguished following for high-level academic achievement. We attribute this accomplishment to our staff, each of whom has been instrumental in shaping our culture of Success, Support, Systems, Staff Development and Satisfaction.

Success Our staff is wholeheartedly committed to personal success and the success of our students.

Support It is essential that our staff members receive the support they need at every step in their career.

Systems From technology integration to educational resources, we have foundational systems in place to support staff, students and families.

Staff Development Each of our staff members has dedicated time to learn and grow through professional learning communities and professional development customized to content and subject matter.

Satisfaction We are proud of our recruitment and retention efforts, which have led to Rocklin Unified's distinction as a desirable, prominent and well-respected school district in Placer County.

“Working in Rocklin Unified offers an exceptional community of professionals who continually go above and beyond to ensure the highest quality education for all of its students and families. The Rocklin Unified School District supports and encourages its employees to be the best they can be, which in turn is passed on to the community through its wonderful students and staff.”

*Shawn Spiess
Secondary Teacher of the Year*

From the district office to every school site, we provide all employees with the support needed to acclimate and grow. Our staff development uses the latest technology and programs aimed to promote professional growth and maximize student learning. We work together to create optimal outcomes for each other, our students and ourselves.

From our board of trustees to our labor partners and our administration, we are united in our belief that our students, their safety and their education are our highest priorities.

Thank you for your interest in our district! We look forward to the opportunity to work together!
