

Novel Coronavirus: Impact on RUSD

**Please note: There will be no public access at RUSD school sites at this time. All school grounds are temporarily closed due to COVID-19 concerns. Thank you for your understanding.*

A Note from Superintendent Stock

Dear Rocklin Unified Community,

Once again, our RUSD community has proven that when we work together for a common goal, we can accomplish nothing but greatness. At the beginning of March, I don't think anyone could have anticipated the whirlwind of mental and emotional turmoil that the COVID-19 situation would bring to our district and beyond. Time and time again, however, I have found myself in awe of staff, students' and their families' success stories as we overcame our new, temporary way of education and life.

This picture of Taylor Moe, RUSD's Custodial Supervisor tells just one story of how our Rocklin Unified community responded with urgency when we were asked by one of our parents-- also an employee at Sutter Health-- if we had hospital type masks.

Performance for Your Post

15,939 People Reached

1,899 Reactions, Comments & Shares i

**People Reached: the number of people who viewed this post on Facebook. Reactions, Comments & Shares: the number of people who interacted with the post on Facebook. These numbers are current as of April 9, 2020.*

Despite all our responsibilities to our 12,000+ families and students and more than 1,200 staff, our Facilities, Maintenance and Operations folks answered the call and donated 10,000 face masks!

This urgency to thrive in these times also comes with skill as so many staff members worked to transfer our teaching methods from classroom-based to remote learning. In a very short period of time we rolled out a new-to-us way of teaching. It was bold and necessary, and we are proud of our teaching staff, classified staff, and our leadership team. Each has done amazing work. As with any new invention or innovation, there are always unforeseen challenges to be addressed. Our caring teachers are shouldering so much. Some of our students are feeling overwhelmed, while others may be having difficulty connecting to their learning. Parents and caregivers, similarly, are facing new stressors and challenges during this time.

If you or someone you know has a serious or immediate concern, please call 9-1-1. If your concern needs immediate attention, support is also available by contacting the CA Department of Public Health's 24-hour Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 or text 838255.

We are doing our best to anticipate new challenges on our horizon. We are also listening to our community and addressing challenges as they come up or building solutions to these challenges into our longer-range plans. This is new to all of us and we are doing the best we can. We are a system that is focused on continual improvement, and we know that will get better each week for as long as this lasts.

Our district is working diligently to determine how to ensure special milestones like high school graduations are celebrated. We are so proud of the accomplishments and strides our seniors have made throughout this year and prior years so we want to ensure we keep those important traditions despite these challenging times. We are still working on details such as when it will be safe to hold these ceremonies and we will provide information as soon as we have it.

As you can see from the photos submitted above from staff, we also want you to share your distance learning success stories with us. Please send us a photo of how your household is doing distance learning, the first names of anyone photographed, their school, grade-level and a short description of what they are working on. You can send these photos to RUSDCommunications@rocklinusd.org and we will share out on our social media channels: Facebook (www.facebook.com/RocklinUnifiedSchoolDistrict) and Twitter (www.twitter.com/RocklinUSD).

Also, coming up after Spring Break you don't want to miss our new special 'Teacher Features' on our social media platforms! You will absolutely be amazed at what our dedicated teachers are doing to keep all students engaged!

All of the above will also be featured in a special section on our District website: www.rocklinusd.org/Parents/RUSDKeepsConnected-OnlineRemote-Learning/Distance-Learning-Photos.

IMPORTANT: Next week as we move into our next phase of distance learning, we will send you an updated Frequently Asked Questions page. As you know from my note last week, we will also be holding a live, virtual "Ask RUSD" session on April 15 from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. This will feature RUSD leaders, including myself, answering your questions about the COVID-19 situation and its impact on our Rocklin Unified Schools. Information for this event will be available on our Facebook (www.facebook.com/RocklinUnifiedSchoolDistrict), our Twitter (www.twitter.com/RocklinUSD) and on our website at www.rocklinusd.org.

In the meantime, we will be accepting questions at the following link: <https://forms.gle/y61ougHoDErXQAYx5>. Simply complete the submission form and your question will be saved for "Ask RUSD."

We continue to work closely with Placer County Public Health, the Placer County Office of Education and other local agencies to evaluate the situation and provide pertinent updates to you.

As we face these obstacles together, we thank you for your support and continued partnership.

Stay strong and stay healthy,

Sincerely,

Roger Stock

Superintendent

Advanced Placement Testing Update from our High School Counselors

If your student is enrolled in Advanced Placement Courses at a Rocklin Unified high school, you should have received a message in March regarding CollegeBoard AP testing updates and information. Below, you'll find the message that was shared:

"Dear AP Students and Families,

We hope that this letter finds you healthy and safe. As anticipated, CollegeBoard has released new information regarding the AP Exam administration. As of 12:00pm EST on March 20th, 2020, CollegeBoard has released the following:

- For the 2019-20 exam administration only, students can take a 45-minute online exam at home. Educator-led development committees are currently selecting the exam questions that will be administered.
- Some students may want to take the exam sooner rather than later, while the content is still fresh. Other students may want more time to practice. For each AP subject, there will be two different testing dates.
- AP curricula are locally developed and we defer to local decisions on how best to help students complete coursework. To be fair to all students, some of whom have lost more instructional time than others, the exam will only include topics and skills most AP teachers and students have already covered in class by early March.
- Colleges support this solution and are committed to ensuring that AP students receive the credit they've worked this year to earn. For decades, colleges have accepted a shortened AP Exam for college credit when groups of students have experienced emergencies.
- Students will be able to take these streamlined exams on any device they have access to—computer, tablet, or smartphone. Taking a photo of handwritten work will also be an option.
- The exam questions are designed in ways that prevent cheating. We use a range of digital security tools and techniques, including plagiarism detection software, to protect the integrity of the exams. Scoring at-home work for an AP Exam isn't new to the AP Program. For years the AP Program has received and scored at-home student work as part of the exams for the AP Computer Science Principles and AP Capstone™ courses.

Given this information, CollegeBoard also states:

- *We'll continue to support students with free resources through exam day. And while we encourage students to wait until closer to the test date to decide, any student already registered for an exam can choose to cancel at no charge.****

AP students should continue to work independently and under the guidance and tutelage of their AP teachers in order to continue their studies and exam preparations to the best of their ability. Students and families are encouraged to reach out via email, Google Classroom, etc. in order to contact teachers with any questions they may have.

Again, we are very grateful for your unwavering flexibility and understanding. We recognize how hard our AP students have worked in order to prepare for their exams, and want to make sure they are provided with all the tools and information necessary to be successful.
